

THE CLIENT ISSUE

Client: a person who engages the professional advice or services of another – Merriam Webster definition

Client: a valued person whose best interests come first and foremost and for whom we work tirelessly to ensure that they and their family are treated fairly and compensated to the highest degree possible – Bulldog Lawyer definition

While all of the issues of the Bulldog Bulletin are dedicated to our clients and to providing advice, information and helpful hints to make our clients' lives a little bit better, this issue is specifically devoted to our awesome and loyal clients and to emphasize just how grateful we are to have them.

What better time to express our devotion and gratitude to our clients than in the issue following our BIGGEST AND BEST CLIENT APPRECIATION DAY EVER! Last month, on August 11th, the Bulldog Lawyers held their annual Client Appreciation Day at Knoebels Amusement Resort and it was a smashing success.

Over fifteen hundred of our wonderful clients, their families and friends attended the festivities at Knoebels. It was by far the biggest turnout yet and everyone appeared to have a fantastic time.

"Thank you all so much for the wonderful time we had...And it just happened to be my birthday, You went above and beyond...thank you for letting me and my family experiencing such a great time with all you wonderful people." – Maureen Miller

As always, there were tons of food, lots of giveaways, nice prizes, face painting, and dozens of fun rides, but most importantly, there was the interaction and comradery that we all got to share with each other. We like to think of us and our clients as one big family, and at Knoebels, it certainly seemed that way.

"Thanks so much for this day out. It was awesome to meet new members of the team. And talk to other people in the situations. Bulldog Lawyers are the best." – Cindy Shymansky

Jay and I and the entire Bulldog Lawyer family can't thank you, our clients, enough for making all of this possible. We hope that you all had a great time and we look forward to seeing you next year. ■

Our Clients Step Up Again

Last year, shortly before our annual Client Appreciation Day, Jay's beloved wife of over forty years, passed away after a lengthy and courageous battle with cancer. At last year's appreciation day celebration, you, our valued clients, stepped up and filled a fishbowl with your generous donations, and by matching your donations, the Bulldog Lawyers were able to contribute a significant sum to the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society, a cause near and dear to our hearts and a cause that obviously benefits all of us.

This year, our clients stepped up once again. Although it was for a different cause, it was one that is also extremely meaningful and one that also benefits all of us.

A couple of months ago, the Pennsylvania legislature tried to sneak through a bill (HB18) that would have decimated injured workers' rights in Pennsylvania. We reached out to you, our clients, and asked that you call, email and write to your representatives and let them know that you were not going to tolerate being treated and disrespected in such a manner. Once again, you came through. Our representatives were bombarded with calls, emails and letters and the bill was withdrawn.

Although the bill was withdrawn, our sources in Harrisburg tell us that the devastating bill is likely to be re-introduced in the near future. The new version of the bill will supposedly be slightly different than its predecessor, but equally harmful to injured workers in Pennsylvania.

As we have previously stated, we like to think of us and our clients as one big family. But if the legislature tries again to strip injured workers of their rights, it may become time to mobilize the Bulldog Family into the Bulldog Nation. As I said at Knoebels, the Bulldog Nation is a power to be reckoned with; we make a difference. Keep your eye on the Bulldog Lawyer Facebook page as we will post information and videos regarding this legislation the moment that it is re-introduced. We will also let you know, via email, how and what you can do to help defeat this bill and protect the constitutional rights of the Bulldog Family and all injured workers in Pennsylvania. The Bulldog Nation will prevail. ■

How to Help with Hurricane Relief

As you all know by now, the United States was hammered by two recent powerful hurricanes, Harvey and Irma, and as of this writing, there are two more, Jose and Maria, on the way. It will take months, if not years to repair the damage caused by these storms.

If you'd like to help, following are three reputable organizations to which you can contribute.

- American Red Cross - <https://www.helpmedonate.org>
- Charity Navigator - <https://www.charitynavigator.org> (Distributes donations to the charities of your choice)
- Salvation Army - <https://give.salvationarmyusa.org> ■
